

Vocabulary

Word	Meaning
Internet	The world's largest computer network, which is made of millions of computers that are linked together.
blog	Short for 'Web Log'. An online journal that is written in a diary style and posted online.
photo blog	A blog that features photographs: kind of like an electronic photo album.
video blog (vlog)	A blog that features videos, these could be information about gaming, fashion or food.
communication	An exchange of messages, information, or ideas
entertainment	Something that amuses or interests.
DB Primary	A platform for schools where you can communicate, play games and do much more.
Golden Whistle	An icon that when clicked sends an alert to the teacher to flag something inappropriate.

What is DB Primary?

DB primary is a safe area on the internet for pupils and teachers to use anytime and anywhere!

- Our DB Primary is ONLY for members Pinner Park Primary School.
- It is used for communicating (emails, blog, forums)
- You can complete learning activities or play games.
- In DB Primary you can belong to different 'communities' which you can contribute to.

Keeping Safe Online

Be careful when you are blogging, remember your E-Safety rules when blogging:

- Never reveal any personal information for example name or other contact information.
- Only use first names.
- Never post pictures of yourself or others (except with your teacher's permission).
- Don't use personal information in a post.

Did you know...?

The first blogger was Justin Hall – a college student who blogged online in 1994. However, the term web logs was coined in 1997. Today there are tens of millions of blogs!

What makes a good blog?

Here are some top tips to make sure your blogs get noticed:

- Interesting content that is appropriate to the reader
- A mix of pictures and text
- An easy to read layout

Blogging

What is a blog?

Blog is short is short for 'Web Log'. It is a way to communicate online, sharing your thoughts, opinions and ideas. It is an online journal that is written in a diary style and posted online.

There are over 600 million blogs in the world

There are different types of blogs:

- Photo blog: A blog that features photographs: kind of like an electronic photo album.
- Video blog: A blog that features videos, these could be information about gaming, fashion or food.

Blogging on DB Primary is really easy to do.

Keeping Safe Online

Be careful when you are blogging, remember your E-Safety rules when blogging:

- Never reveal any personal information for example name or other contact information.
- Only use first names.
- Never post pictures of yourself or others (except with your teacher's permission).
- Don't share personal information in a post.

A blog is a place to share views and opinions. We are free to say what we believe however, we must make sure that we are respectful to others at all times and that we do not post things that could be offensive or upsetting to others.

The Golden Whistle

Is there something on this page that you don't think should be here?

Write your message for Miss Manion here.

Tell an adult straight away if you see anything that worries or upsets you online.

Use the Golden Whistle if you see some thing that is not right.

Remember to type a description so that your teacher knows how to sort it out.

Extending your learning

1. Read different blogs written by children:

<https://sisterville.wordpress.com/>

<http://youngaspiringartist.blogspot.com/>

<https://lizziescookingforkids.wordpress.com/>

<http://kidsblogclub.com/10-new-kids-blogs-check/>

2. Try this quiz to test your knowledge on Blogs.

<https://create.kahoot.it/share/1d5fc2af-edc2-4bbb-97f4-35e7d885449b>

3. Pick a topic that interests you and write a blog using DB Primary.