

Curriculum Snapshot

Spring (2) Term 2022

English

Spelling

- Homophones
- Commonly misspelt words and exception words

Grammar and Punctuation

- Determiners
- Noun phrases
- Fronted adverbials
- Punctuation for extra information

Writing

- Chronological reports and explanation texts
- Persuasive letter
- Narrative – Fantasy stories
- Chosen Texts

'Invasion' by June Crebbin

Maths

Fractions

- Mixed numbers and improper fractions
- Compare and order mixed numbers
- Understand improper fractions
- Convert between mixed number and improper fractions
- Equivalent fractions
- Adding and subtracting fractions and mixed numbers

Decimals

- Tenths
- Dividing 1 and 2-digit numbers by 10 and 100
- Hundredths

Art & Design

Children will think in 3D during this unit as they explore how they can manipulate and construct using clay, to create a tile taking inspiration from Roman designs they have explored in their history unit.

Computing

iProgram –

Children will continue to develop their skills of computer coding building on the basics they have already learnt.

E-safety – understanding types of online bullying and its

Design & Technology

Children will explore how to design and construct robust and practical shell structures which meet a specific design need. They will develop various design skills including accurate measuring and cutting.

Geography

Children will focus on a history topic this half term in which they may use geographical skills such as map reading. They will be moving on to a geography topic next half term.

History

This half term the children will continue their learning about the Romans in Britain. They will be learning about the legacy that the Roman Empire left behind them in Britain and they will be learning about the decline of the Roman Empire.

Languages

Children will continue to develop some of the key basic vocabulary in French with a focus on words and phrases that they can use when describing people to others.

Music

Children will develop their understanding of reading musical notation and become more confident to work with a partner to develop and perform a duet, recalling their piece from written musical notation.

PE & Sport

During their indoor PE sessions, children will explore different activities to enhance and promote their physical and mental fitness. Outside, children develop striking and aiming skills through golf related activities.

PSHE

Healthy Me

- Healthier friendships
- Group dynamics
- Smoking
- Alcohol
- Assertiveness
- Peer pressure
- Celebrating inner strength

Religious Education

Buddhism

Through exploring his teachings, children will consider if the Buddha's teachings make the world a better place. They will link this to the values we have in our school.

Science

During this half term, children will be learning about water cycle. They will identify the processes of evaporation and condensation in the water cycle by producing a model to demonstrate the water cycle.

Homework

Each week children will be given some English activities to complete at home, which will include spellings. Maths activities will be set through MyMaths. In addition, children should complete daily reading and regularly use Times Tables Rock Stars.